████████ was asked if he told █████ or anyone else that "you're dealing with big stuff and may get hurt." He denied making this statement but he did tell her that he did not like the story going around as he was afraid for his own safety as someone might think he did have something to do with the HOFFA disappearance and he might be killed. He advised that it is possible he might have used the terminology this was big stuff, but again was trying to convey his own fears. No threat to her was intended in any way. He was asked if he offered her money not to release the information. He denied that he did. He advised he thought possibly she was trying to extort money from him and he did ask her if the call was a shakedown.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 8/15/75

Mr. ROBERT SNOWDEN, Horseshoe Lake, Hughes, Arkansas, was advised of the identities of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] as Special Agents of the FBI and that he was being interviewed regarding the disappearance of JAMES HOFFA. Mr. SNOWDEN advised he had no information regarding JAMES HOFFA; however, he stated he would be glad to furnish any cooperation he could.

SNOWDEN advised he had no information regarding this disappearance or JAMES HOFFA's current whereabouts. Mr. SNOWDEN denied that JAMES HOFFA was staying at his home and showed both Agents throughout his home and immediate grounds. SNOWDEN advised he is a farmer and has lived at his current home for approximately 58 years. He stated he was a veteran of World War II and the U. S. Army. Mr. SNOWDEN stated philosophically he is opposed to big government and big unions and if he knew where JAMES HOFFA was, he would be the first to tell the FBI.
